Prices Go Down and Jobs Fade

Bring Reassurances
America's Economic Situation Is Not
Alarming

Silver Lining

Dollar Will Buy
a Little More Than
Few Months Ago

By JACK RUTLEDGE

Washington, Feb. 5 (AP)—Tumbling prices and a sharp rise in the number of jobless workers brought soothing official reassurances today that America's economic situation is not alarming.

There is even a silver lining in what, to some people, looked like a dark cloud on the economic horizon: the dollar will buy a little more than it did a few months ago.

These were the developments yesterday.

The New York Stock Market, the barometer that predicted the 1929 collapse, took its soundest beating in many months, with 61 stocks selling at the lowest price in more than a year.

Also in New York, bond prices suffered one of the sharpest declines of the last 12 months, with nearly 125 issues sagging, some as much as two points.

The Chicago grain market was hit by a storm of selling, with corn, oats, rye and soybean falling so swiftly that one trader described the market as "demoralized."

The Associated Press index of 35 wholesale commodities dropped nearly a full point, reaching 168.46, the lowest mark since February 6, 1947.

Loose lard was offered on the Chicago Board of Trade of $12 a hundred pounds, the lowest point in six years.

The Pennsylvania Railroad said it was laying off 2,500 of the 45,000 men in its maintenance and equipment department. They will be furloughed for an indefinite period.

Altogether, the Census Bureau reported in Washington, there were 2,000,000 more unemployed in January than in December.

Actually, the true drop was only 700,000. Officials said the other 1,300,000 reported as jobless really aren't part of the nation's normal working force—they were probably holiday employees, students, or others who no longer seek jobs.

But the 700,000 have joined enough others who are out of work and want work, to push America's current unemployment total to 2,650,000, 600,000 more than in January, 1948.

Officials saw little to worry about, however.

Secretary of Labor Tobin said the present unemployment level "beats careful watching," but he added that "the situation is not alarming."

Dr. Edwin G. Nourse, chairman of the President's Council of Economic Advisors, said neither the census figures nor skidding food prices alarmed him. He said, however, that "these months are very divisive months."

Secretary of Agriculture Brannan said the decline in food prices was only an adjustment and not the beginning of any drastic trend.

And the Labor Department, noting that the increase in jobless has now slackened appreciably, predicted that spring will bring a demand for more workers as construction begins.

College May Move

Ithaca Looks Over Site
in Westchester;
Needs Space

Ithaca, N. Y., Feb. 5 (AP)—Ithaca College is considering moving to White Plains.

Dr. Charles E. Haines, vice-president of the college, confirmed last night that a site in the Westchester county city was being studied, but he declined to go into details.

Ithaca College, noted for its physical education and music courses, has an enrollment of 1,450 and a faculty and staff of 172.

It has been thinking of moving to another city because of cramped facilities here and lack of expansion room on its present site.

Dr. Haines said "the problem still might be worked out locally." But he added that the assets of the college were sufficient to "offer attractive advantages to any community interested in giving us its full support." He estimated the assets at nearly $2,000,000.

A committee was appointed recently to study expansion needs and the feasibility of moving to another city.

Acquisition of Madison barracks at Sackett Harbor and a site in Ulster have been considered by the college.

Freed

Mrs. Elita Long (above), 12-year-old child bride and expectant mother, was freed of charges of stabbing her 23-year-old husband. But whether the Masson, Mich., girl could continue to live with her husband depends on her age, the judge said. Police say Elita is 12; she says she's 14, and her mother says she is 16. Shah of Iran Shot at 5 Times

Young Pro-Western Shah
Slightly Hurt; Under Martial Law

Tehran, Iran, Feb. 5 (AP)—This capital city of oil-rich Iran was under martial law today after an unsuccessful attempt to assassinate the country's young, pro-western Shah.

Mohammed Reza Pahlavi, the 29-year-old ruler, escaped with slight injuries when a would-be assassin fired five shots at him late yesterday.

Authorities identified the attacker as Fakhr Ralee, a newspaper reporter.

Ralee's political affiliations and his possible motives were not immediately made public. The paper he worked for was not identified.

Two of the shots, fired as the Shah entered Tehran University to take part in an anniversary celebration, struck him. One went through his cheek and upper lip and another through his side. The other three bullets pierced his hat.

An official communique issued late yesterday said he was in excellent condition.

Ralee was reported beaten severely by bystanders following the shooting.

The young ruler of Iran, formerly called Persia, less than three months ago divorced Princess Fawzia, sister of the King of Egypt who is considered one of the world's most beautiful women.

Just Testing Ice

Patrolmen Charles Hoeing and Walter Van Steenburgh and Fire Chief Murphy answered an emergency call to Gil's dock on the Rondout Creek at the foot of Tompkins street at 10 a. m. today, where it was reported a boy fell into the creek. Investigation disclosed that the boy, Charles DeCicco, 31 Gil street, had merely climbed down the front of the dock to test the ice with his toe, and had not even gotten wet, police reported. Apparently a witness saw the boy go over the side of the dock and concluded wrongly that he had fallen in, police said.

Democrat Strategists Plan Dewey Budget War

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 5 (AP)—Democrats armed themselves today for an attack on Governor Dewey's $114,000,000 boost in income tax payments. They will aim their big guns at this budget proposal unless the added revenue is earmarked for more school aid.

A Democratic spokesman said strategy to oppose the Dewey proposal was being outlined at a week-end "budget school" in New York city for the party's state legislators.

The governor asked the Legislature Tuesday to boost present income tax payments 66 2/3 per cent by restoring a full-100 per cent legal collection rate. The levy now is collected at only 60 per cent of the full rate.

Other Increases
Dewey also urged increases in the gasoline, corporate franchise and harness racing pari-mutual levies. He said the four boosts were needed to bring in an added $168,200,000 to help finance a record $936,200,000 budget.

The Democratic budget school points to the joint legislative public hearing on the new budget, set for February 16, in the Assembly chamber.

The spokesman, who asked that his name not be used, said 30 assemblymen and 15 senators were attending the school, called by Democratic State Chairman Paul E. Fitzpatrick.

Top party strategists were to furnish the legislators with ammunition for their fight against Dewey's $2,600,000-a-day program.

Flights Begin Monday
Earlier this week, minority Senate and Assembly Leaders Elmer F. Quinn and Irwin Steinberg promised that the budget attack would begin next week, probably Monday night.

Steinberg's office said the Democrats would concentrate on two points—Dewey's school aid program and the added taxes.

Dewey asked the Legislature for $228,900,000 in public school aid.

Price Review Due On Crossing Sites

Relative to elimination of the Broadway railroad crossing, State Senator Arthur H. Wicks today said that he anticipated an announcement early next week to the effect that acquisition of the required right-of-way will soon be started.

Wicks was of the opinion that owners of properties in the area would soon receive announcements that the Bureau of Rights of Way and Claims, New York State Department of Public Works, is to review original estimates, made about 1940, for the purpose of adjusting them to present day levels. Estimates are to cover value of properties which must be taken and for other legal damages to which owners may be entitled.

George W. Moore, president of the Kingston Real Estate Board, was recently appointed by Bertram D. Tallamy, state public works superintendent, to find homes for approximately 75 tenants, with instructions that actual acquisition of land will begin in the very near future.

Marbletown Play Program to Get $800 From State

Youth Commission Gives
Approval to Recreation
Plans of Local Committee

Supervisor Harry Snyder has been notified that state financial aid has been approved for the recreation project sponsored by the Town of Marbletown. Announcement of the favorable action taken by the New York State Youth Commission was made by the Albany office.

The recreation program is operated by the Marbletown Recreation Committee of which Supervisor Snyder is chairman, and William L. Larsen and Richard F. Mack are co-chairmen.

Recreation services which will be provided under this project and for which state reimbursement has been approved include educational movies for children, ice skating facilities, playground recreation at High Falls, and instruction in basketball.

Areas to be used include the Oak Grove School, the Atwood, Peak, Krippelbush and Stone Ridge schools; also Kuluk Pond, owned by Mrs. E. C. Chadbourn, the High Falls schoolyard, High Falls canal and the High Falls Five Company hall.

Swing set, merry-go-round, and sports equipment are being made available. The skating rink on High Falls canal will be illuminated at night.

It is estimated that for the year ending December 31, 1949 the overall cost of the program will be $1600. Of this amount $800 will be reimbursed to the town in the form of state aid granted through the New York State Youth Commission.

Tarrock Drowned When
Car Ran Into Creek

Ernest Tarrock, 46, of Route 9W, Port Ewen, died of accidental drowning Friday noon when his sedan plunged into the Rondout creek, coroner Ernest A. Kelly announced today.

The official verdict was reached after an autopsy was performed by Dr. J. S. Taylor, director of the Kingston Laboratory, and Dr. Anthony Mauerer who pronounced Tarrock dead at the scene.

According to the police, Tarrock's automobile ran off Dock street into the Rondout creek at the junction of that roadway and Ravine street near the R. Lenahan boatyard.

Tarrock, who conducted a gas station and rented a number of cabins on Route 9W, was born in Norway. He had been a resident of the United States since 1924 and had lived in Port Ewen since 1935.

He is survived by his wife, Lilian R. Schönbek Tarrock; a sister, Solveig Tarrock of Norway, and two brothers, Harry and Austin of Norway.

The funeral will be held from the Ernest A. Kelly Funeral Home, 111 West Chester street, Monday, at 2:30 p. m. Burial will take place in Wiltwyck Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home Sunday between 2 and 4 p. m. and 7 and 9 p. m.

Cardinal on Trial in Budapest

Josef Cardinal Mindszenty sits in Budapest, Hungary Peoples court with a uniformed guard beside him as his trial on charges of treason, espionage and black market operations begins. Death of Cardinal By Hanging Demanded

Holy Cross Priest
Hurt in Crash as
Car, Truck Collide

The Rev. Vern L. Adams, O.H.C., of Holy Cross, West Park, was treated at Kingston Hospital for injuries received Friday afternoon when the station wagon he was driving collided with a milk tank truck at Port Ewen, the sheriff's department reported.

The Rev. Father Adams, who is 44, suffered three fractured ribs and lacerations over his right eye, the sheriff's men said. He was taken to the hospital in a private automobile before the arrival of an ambulance which had been summoned.

Deputy Sheriffs William Frost and Joseph Gentile investigated. They reported the accident occurred on Route 9W on the hill near the traffic light in Port Ewen at 2:15 p. m.

The station wagon was proceeding north when it struck the rear trailer wheel of a 17-ton milk truck which was going south, the sheriff's men said. The truck went off the highway and tipped over in an apple orchard past the ditch, demolishing the cab, but the driver, Lester A. West, 43, of Prattville, escaped injury, according to the report. The station wagon spun around and came to rest in the middle of the highway, facing south. It was a total wreck, the deputies said.

Prosecutor's Attack
Directed at U. S.
Government and Spellman

By ENORE MARTON
Budapest, Hungary, Feb. 5 (AP)—The prosecutor of this Communist-ruled state today demanded a "hard" sentence—meaning death by hanging—for Josef Cardinal Mindszenty and all six of his associated defendants.

Presiding Judge Vilmos Othys said earlier a verdict could not be expected before Monday in the treason case of the 59-year-old primate of 7,000,000 Hungarian Catholics. But the sensational trial which began only three days ago was moving swiftly to a conclusion.

Prosecutor Gyula Elapi said the Hungarian people demanded the removal of Cardinal Mindszenty as one of "the last remnants of reaction."

The cardinal will be given an opportunity, with the other six defendants, to make a "last words" statement—a personal appeal—before the court retires to consider its verdict.

Although Judge Othys said early in the day he thought there would not be a verdict before Monday, a cabinet minister commented privately that he thought the case would be pushed along with the possibility of a verdict around midnight (6 p. m. E.S.T.).

Cardinal Mindszenty's attorney, Kálmán Kikla, made a weak and apologetic statement in opening the defense.

He praised the people's democracies (eastern Europe's Communist regimes) and agreed with the prosecutor that his client's activities had "harmed the country immensely." He also commented that many untrue stories had been printed abroad.

Kikla dwelt at considerable length on the cardinal's statement in court that he deeply regretted his actions and that future decisions would be different. The prosecutor, in his statement, ridiculed these "regrets."

The court-appointed barrister asked for a "wise and lenient decision" by the five-man People's court which will decide both the question of guilt or innocence and penalty.

My task was difficult, but I did the best I could for the defendant, said the defense lawyer. "I remind you that all of you in this courtroom will likely be mentioned in world history and your deeds will be judged through the next century."

In the early part of his summation, the prosecutor had pointed out that the case was attracting the most intense interest throughout the world, and struck back at "false rumors" that the cardinal has been dragged, tortured or threatened to extort confessions.

Elapi's fiery attack was directed at the people of the city.

Rosendale Road Is Barricaded by Central Railroad

Binnewater - Hickorybush
Traffic Is Blocked;
Night Project Is Called Unfair

The highway used by the public to gain access from Binnewater to Hickorybush in the town of Rosendale was barricaded late last night where the tracks of the Wallkill Valley branch of the New York Central Railroad cross near Williams Lake.

About 11:30 p. m. a crew of about 30 men under the direction of railroad officials began to dig holes on both sides of the crossing and at an early hour this morning had barricaded the crossing.

This road block cuts off all vehicular and pedestrian traffic over the road leading from Binnewater to the bungalow colony at the north end of Williams Lake as well as to the town of Rosendale and village of Rosendale dumping ground further north on the road to Hickorybush.

The barricade does not affect traffic to and from Williams Lake hotel since the hotel is reached over a private road which runs over property of Williams Lake from Lucas avenue on the west side of the railroad tracks.

Resort Not Affected
Reached for comment this morning, Walter Williams of the hotel, stated that four years ago he had offered the railroad a plan for the relocation of the crossing on which two fatal accidents had recently occurred but the railroad had rejected the plan. His plan was for a crossing some distance away where sight distance was better.

Since then the railroad had offered its own plan for the solution of this crossing problem but their plan was not acceptable to the principals involved, Mr. Williams stated.

Said Williams, "doing a job like this without notice and in the secrecy of the middle of the night when injured parties had no recourse to law seems to be typical of present day railroad tactics and indicates that the railroad company had full knowledge of their lack of legal right to barricade the road."

Property owners in the bungalow colony north of Williams Lake who are affected by the barricade include Clayton Jenkins of Highland, Willard Jenkins of Clintonville, Howard Grimm who is president of the New Paltz Savings

Newkirk Analyzes Tax Situation in Kingston

Mayor Oscar V. Newkirk today told a Freeman reporter that numerous inquiries have been made during the week with regard to the new 1949 general tax bills. The mayor pointed out that he stated in his annual message to the common council on January 1st that the total amount to be paid in 1949 would be more than 1948 due to the higher cost of government. He also declared that higher costs have made it difficult for all cities in the state to operate and that many cities, such as Poughkeepsie, have been forced to impose special taxes to secure sufficient operating revenues.

Mayor Newkirk said that he has been guided by the belief that it is essential that those who are interested with the management of the affairs of the city of Kingston should avoid every bit of wasteful and unnecessary expenditure but that it is equally clear that the city administration must respond to the needs and obligations for continued and increased services to the people of the city.

The mayor presented the following analysis of increases in 1949 as compared with 1948:

Increase in debt service or additional amount in bonds to be sold or in 1949 as compared with 1948

County taxes (the city of Kingston pays about one-third of the county budget) in 1948 the county budget contained a large item for the new Cancer Clinic

Snow removal (it cost $54,429.78 to remove snow last year)

Police Department wages (increases as a result of the referendum last election day)

Board of Public Works wages (increases to equalize with the raises voted for the police and firemen in their referenda)

City officials' salaries

Pension assessments (in 1949 the city of Kingston will pay $62,000 to the State Retirement Fund for police, fire and general governmental employees)

New Snow and Wind Storms on Pacific Coast

Threaten to Curtail Relief Operations in Parts of Western Blizzard
Areas

(By The Associated Press)

New snow and wind storms on the Pacific coast moved into the plateau states today and threatened to curtail relief operations in parts of the western blizzard areas.

Generally, however, hay lift operations and the big job of clearing snow-clogged roads to ranches and Indian reservations continued.

The Fifth Army reported that since operations started in the Nebraska-South Dakota-Wyoming area a week ago rescue crews had reached 7,846 snowbound humans and more than 224,000 animals.

Overcast skies failed to halt the transport planes from flying their mercy errands in Arizona. Army, national guard and civil air patrol planes carried food and medicine to the snowbound Navajo Indian reservation.

At Ely, Nev., Col. Adriel Williams, commanding officer of the air force group flying hay to stranded livestock in Nevada, said, "It's tough and go with the weather." The haylift was halted by driving snow Thursday but flights were made yesterday despite high winds and snow.

Cold weather is general over most of the nation again today. Temperatures in nearly every section, except southern Florida, are below normal.

A sub-zero belt early today, extended from the northern Rockies to northern Illinois. The readings ranged from 18 below at Bismarck, N. D., to -7 at Bradford, Ill. The

C. of C. on Jobs

Steady Employment Topic of Meeting Held Here
Friday Afternoon

Twenty-five industrial and business leaders of Kingston met with David M. Molthrop of the National Association of Manufacturers to discuss employment stabilization Friday noon at the Governor Clinton Hotel. The meeting was sponsored by the Kingston Chamber of Commerce and President Robert E. Teetsel presided.

Molthrop discussed ways and means of providing full-time employment for more workers. He emphasized the fact that it was a responsibility of employers to take a personal interest in the welfare of employees. He recommended a merit system of state unemployment insurance taxing to benefit both employee and employer. He stated that New York state is one of the few states not providing for such a merit system which is driving some of the best factories out of the state.

Those present were asked to tell what their plant was doing to provide full-time employment instead of releasing persons from employment. The ensuing discussion was very enlightening and worthwhile as expressed by President Teetsel. An outline of procedure was provided to each one present for his information and use.

IV. Use the M.J.M. building as an elementary school.

V. Discontinue using Schools No. 2, No. 3, No. 4, No. 7 and No. 8.

(a) Children attending No. 2 School would go to the M.J.M. School.

(b) Children attending Schools No. 3 and No. 4 will attend the new school to be erected on the Hasbrouck Park site.

(c) Some of the children now attending No. 7 School will attend the new building to be erected on the Sahler property site. Other children living in the Lucas avenue-Forsyth Park-municipal stadium-Hurley avenue area will attend the new school to be located some place in those areas. A suggested site for this school is the plot of ground located between Lucas avenue and Millers Lane in the Twelfth Ward.

(d) All children attending No. 8 School will attend the new duties here in September. Miss Saunders is a member of Kappa Delta Phi, educational honorary society.

Paul Donlon of Manhattan College, New York city, is spending some time with his mother on upper Main street.

Arthur Kelly has received his honorable discharge from the U. S. Army and has returned to his home at the Lighthouse Drive.

Mr. and Mrs. John Layton of Main street have returned after visiting relatives and friends in Roslyn, L. I.

John O'Hara of Main street was conveyed to the Dale Sanitarium on Barclay Heights.

At the recent Annard-Woodstock basketball game played in the municipal auditorium for the benefit of the March of Dimes campaign, the net proceeds were $81.

The money has been turned over to Mayor Franklin P. Clum, local chairman.

Miss Jean Mason of New York city was a recent guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mason on Washington avenue.

Donald Short of the State Teachers' College at Oswego, spent the past week-end with his par-school to be erected on the Sahler property site.

VI. All children in grades 7, 8 and 9 shall attend the two K-9 schools to be erected (1) on the Hasbrouck Park site and (2) on a site located in the Lucas avenue-Forsyth Park-municipal stadium-Hurley avenue area.

VII. Present Vocational School Building shall have an addition which shall house the three shops now located in the Millard Building; also, house a complete home-making department.

VIII. The city should be redistricted so as to properly assign the children to the various elementary schools.

IX. Projects which are very urgent and should be given immediate consideration:

(a) Recommend the construction of an elementary school to be located on the Sahler property site. This should be a K-6 school.

(b) Recommend the erection of an addition to the Vocational School.

(c) The increased birth-rate is affecting the registrations in the elementary schools, especially in the lower grades. More classrooms will be needed in the elementary schools, especially in Schools No. 5, No. 6, No. 7, and No. 8. It is therefore recommended that:

(1) the 9th year students now attending the M.J.M. School be transferred back to the Kingston High School building.

(2) all 7th grade students in the elementary schools be transferred to the M.J.M. School, which school would then accommodate all the 7th and 8th grade children in the public schools. The number of 7th grade children approximately equals the number of 9th grade children who have been attending the M.J.M. School. Such a plan will result in a much better over-all school organization. It will also eliminate the unfortunate situation resulting from having part of the 9th year students in the M.J.M. School and part in the Kingston High School.

(d) Because of the many new homes being built in the Roosevelt Park, the Richmond Park and District No. 8—Town of Ulster areas, the problem of providing a new school to serve these areas is now a most important one. The Board of Education should give consideration to the erection of a K-6 building on the Loughran Park site.

ents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Short on Ann street.

William Jerwann of the State College at Oswego was a recent guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Jerwann on Elizabeth street.

Mrs. Donald Johnson, the former Elsie Carswell formerly of this village, has arrived on the island of Guam, where her husband is a chief petty officer with the U. S. Navy.

Marvin Rose and friend of Cobleskill were Sunday guests of relatives and friends in this village.

Retires Gift Horse

Sun Valley, Idaho, Feb. 5 (AP)—"Fact", prize horse given by Premier Joseph Stalin to W. Averell Harriman, former ambassador to Russia, has been retired here.

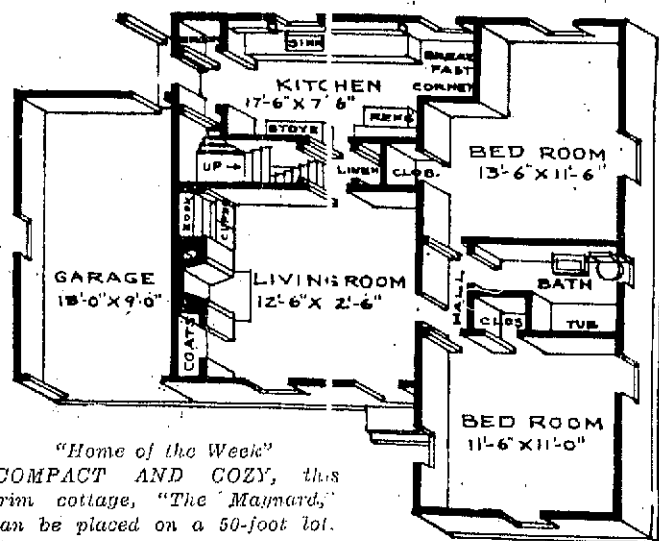

Stalin overheard Harriman praising the English-bred stallion after a Moscow victory parade and it was later delivered to him as a gift from the Russian premier.

The parade was shortly after V-E Day. Since then the 16-year-old thoroughbred has been at the Harriman estate near Arden, N. Y. It was shipped to Sun Valley at Harriman's request.

Respiring Hill

In Castlemaine, Australia, there is a hill that not only breathes, but snores, as air rushes in and out of an abandoned mine below the surface, causing the hill to rise and fall.

THE MAYNARD

"Home of the Week" COMPACT AND COZY, this trim cottage, "The Maynard," can be placed on a 50-foot lot.

Small Cottage Has Many Conveniences

House Design Meets Needs of Newlyweds or Older Couples Whose Children Have Established Their Own Homes

"Just a love-nest, cozy and warm, like a dove-nest, down on the farm." So runs a popular song of several years ago. And aptly do the words describe the one-story four-room, cottage design introduced today by The "Home of the Week" Plan Service.

To young newlyweds or older couples whose families have grown up and established homes of their own, this cozy, low-studded house set off by its low, picket fence, will appeal both in appearance and in the comforts it offers.

Cubage Can Be Reduced

This L-shaped dwelling measures but 37x19 feet and the total cubage, including a full basement, is but 17,550 feet. By eliminating the basement under the bedrooms, the cubage may be reduced to 14,500 feet with a resultant saving in construction cost.

A half-round glazed upper panel in the front door admits sunlight into the 12x14-foot living room. The fireplace arrangement, with a built-in bookcase at one side, is unusual. In the opposite wall facing the fireplace is a door to a small passage running between the bedrooms. The bathroom opens off this hall, between the bedrooms. The bedrooms are both of comfortable size, with three windows in one room and two in the smaller room at the rear of the house. Another small hall leads from the living room to the kitchen. Stairs to the attic ascend at one side of this hall and, opposite the stairs is a linen closet.

The kitchen is of unusual shape, measuring 12 feet in length by 7.6 feet in width. A broom closet, working counter and sink fill the long outside wall of the room; range and refrigerator standing against the inside wall, at either side of the hall doorway looking into the living room.

At one end of the kitchen an archway opens on a dining nook, lighted by a window at the back of the house. At the opposite end of the kitchen a glazed door gives access to a small covered porch.

This door serves as a service entrance and stormy-weather connection with the garage. Stairs to the basement lead down from the kitchen, adjacent to the service entrance.

Insulation over ceilings should be specified and if only partial expansion is made for the cellar, ventilation should be provided for the un-excavated area under the bedrooms.

Plans Are Available

Complete plans and specifications for this house, "The Maynard," the "Home of the Week" or any other design of this series, are available at moderate cost. To ascertain the exact price of these documents, write to the Home-Building Editor and enclose a self-addressed envelope, bearing a three-cent stamp. At least one week should be allowed for a reply. (Released by the "Home of the Week" Plan Service)

Shingle Styles Of Three Types

American, Dutch Lap or French Methods Are More Popular

Most roofs are shingled in one of three different methods: the American, the Dutch lap and the French.

The most popular is the American method, which consists of laying square butt individual or strip shingles side by side, each row overlapping the row below it. Most asphalt shingled roofs are laid in the American method.

In the Dutch lap, individual square butt shingles are used. In this method, each shingle overlaps not only the row below it, but also the shingle to the right of it. This method employs large, individual shingles.

The French method comprises the hexagonal and octagonal shingles, laid so that there is a space the width of one shingle between each pair of shingles. Successive rows are then staggered so that these open spaces occur directly above shingles in the row below.

Questions—Answers

Building Book-Shelves

Q. Is it necessary to line the back of book shelves with wood?

A. No, it is not; just set the skeleton frame against the interior finish of the wall.

Laundry Trays

Q. What is meant by a laundry tray?

A. It is merely another name for a laundry tub.

Location of Garage

Q. Is it better to build the garage attached to the house or separate?

A. If it can be located where it does not obstruct necessary light and air, it is better to build it as a part of the house. Separate garages cut up the yard and make it difficult to develop any scheme of yard layout. An attached garage is more convenient and improves the architectural appearance of the house. Placing the garage at the back of the lot is merely a habit inherited from the days of horses and carriages.

Proper Window Sizes

When the modernization of a house is contemplated, the size of the windows is a point to be considered. Small windows, unless they are on the sunny side of the house, are often inadequate for the proper lighting of a room. Small panes of glass in the sash are also less efficient than a window with single or double panes.

Old Homes Are Made Attractive By Simple Plan

While new homes are rising throughout the state, many house hunters are not overlooking the bargains today's real estate market affords in old houses—sturdy, substantial structures good for many more years of serviceability.

A bit of remodeling, fresh decoration inside and out is all that is needed, in many instances, to make these old structures into attractive and comfortable homes.

"We are buying an old house and expect to do some remodeling," one man writes. "What can we do to make it fire-safe?"

Because fires start most often in the basements of buildings, it would be well to look first to that portion of the house. The basement ceiling could be finished with plaster or metal lath or with sheet plaster.

Defective flues should certainly be attended to.

And if shingles of the old house are curled, loose or thin, the house should be re-roofed. Roof fires are an all too common occurrence.

Noisy Faucets

In less modern plumbing systems a thumping or pounding noise is sometimes heard when a faucet is partly turned on. This may be caused by a compression-type faucet, by a loose cap nut, a worn spindle, or a loose defective disk.

Paint Linen Shelves

Painted shelves are the best solution for the linen closet. Then when one wishes to pull out sheets, pillow cases, etc., from the bottom of the piles, one does not pull out the shelf paper along with it.

Benedictine Women
Hear of Cancer;
Arrange for Ball

"The light against cancer is your light" was the theme presented to the Benedictine Hospital Auxiliary at its regular meeting Wednesday. Preliminary plans were announced for the Easter Ball, April 18, several card parties were planned and 23 new members were welcomed.

Arrangements for the program were made through Mrs. James Betts, commander of the Kingston Field Army for the showing of the educational film on cancer. Miss Marcelle Blancha, supervising nurse County Health Department, explained that cancer is a "silent growth of cells," and that early detection was of primary importance in the control of this disease. There is no so-called secret cure for cancer, stated Miss Blancha, in telling about the society for cancer control. Miss Blancha mentioned as its aims, prevention, treatment or cure. The public health nurses are at all times ready to assist doctors and patients, she noted. At the City Laboratory there is a supply of dressings available to patients through their own physicians.

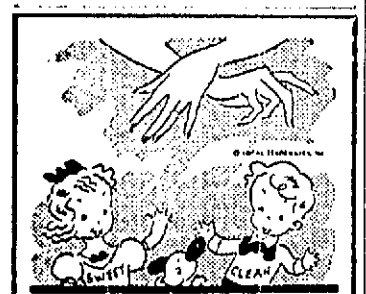

During the regular business session, Mrs. George F. Binter, president, announced preliminary plans for the Easter Ball which will be held at the municipal auditorium, April 18. She appointed Mrs. Allen Baker, chairman, Mrs. Charles E. Davis, co-chairman, Mrs. Edwin Phelan and Mrs. Bart Duto in charge of entertainment, and the Misses Anne and Mary Campbell, treasurers.

Mrs. Davis, who is also membership chairman, announced as new members the following: The Misses Reuben Leventhal, N. LeVan Haver, Harry Segal, Edward J. Dolan, Ben Silverman, George McDonough, Miss Cherlin, Julius Kirschner, Bertha Peckerman, William Gaffken, Hamilton Boyd, Irving Adner, Francis R. Canfield, George Kaufman, Louis Epstein, August Cohen, Harold Tirsch, Bernice Singer, George Goldfarb, William Dean, Frank Schonger, N. Stern Montague and Edward D. Hubbard.

The first of a series of card parties, proceeds of which will be used to furnish a room in the proposed new hospital wing, was held at the home of Mrs. Bart Duto. Volunteers were asked to help in this project, either by acting as hostesses or by attendance at the parties already planned.

Refreshments were served, at the close of the meeting, with Mrs. William Cranston, Mrs. James Gibbons and Mrs. Bart Duto acting as hostesses. Due to Lenten service on Ash Wednesday, the next meeting will be Tuesday evening, March 1.

Sisterhood Meeting
The Sisterhood of Temple Emanuel will hold a regular meeting Wednesday at 2 p. m. in the home of Mrs. Alfred Ronder on Johnston avenue.

Junior Marrieds

Junior Married Women's Club held its regular meeting with interest groups at the Y.W.C.A. Thursday evening. Hostesses at the social hour were Mrs. Willis Locke, chairman, Mrs. Lewis Marz, Mrs. Albert Gruner and Mrs. Francis Howard.

Music Appreciation

The Women's Club Music Appreciation Group met with Mrs. William S. Jackson, 41 Washington avenue, Thursday afternoon.

In introducing the study of music, Mrs. Millington noted that he was born in 1822 in Leige, Belgium and that his father intended him to enter the banking business. However, young Frank went to Paris where he studied at the conservatory under Benoit, organist. He married a daughter of an important actor of the day and began teaching music to earn a living. One of his pupils was Debussy.

During this period in his life Frank began to compose and his works were played by Liszt in private concerts. Frank succeeded his teacher at the conservatory in 1872 and in the years following composed some of his greatest works. Among the compositions listed were his oratorios, Ruth in 1846; Le Beaulieu, 1880; Rebecca, 1881; his symphony in D minor, 1889; a Mass and two operas, Huldah and Giselle; important works for organ and chamber music.

Mrs. Millington illustrated the theme of the Debussy symphony at the piano and then played the symphony from a new micro-groove recording. Also played from recordings were organ compositions, A Minor, and Pastoral.

During the business meeting conducted by Mrs. Arthur J. Laidlaw, announcement concerning the next meeting was made. The program on Buckner and Mahler will be arranged by Mrs. Earl Schoonmaker and Mrs. Charles A. Terwilliger. The meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Willard Burke, 190 Washington avenue, February 17.

The comedy concerns Miss Minty, a debutante from London, who with her English maid, Fanny, have decided to spend some time in the summer cottage at Meadow Bank, Derbyshire, England, for the purpose of complete relaxation. This young lady has become so bored with society, teas, parties, and most of all men, that she has decided to come to her cottage for rest and quietness.

DON'T DWADLE ON DANCE FLOOR

The following question is not new to this column: "Since I'm a poor dancer, wouldn't it be better to refuse men when they ask me to dance and just dance once in a while with my husband or a member of my family? My husband is not a good dancer either!"

You and your husband should take some dancing lessons. Otherwise, I don't see what else you can do but say frankly that you are a poor dancer. If a would-be partner insists upon dancing with you anyway (which would certainly be unusual), take a few steps and if it does not go well, say, "You see?" and then suggest sitting down.

Thank-You for Holiday Hospitality

Dear Mrs. Post: I spent Christmas day in the house of strangers. A friend of mine was given the privilege of bringing a friend for company, and she chose me as I had nowhere to go. We had a wonderful day. All I have done thus far to show my appreciation was say, "Thank you" when I left. I think I really should do something more, but what?

Answer: A brief appreciative note telling your hostess how much you enjoyed the day is all that could be required.

Definitely a Test of Friendship

Dear Mrs. Post: We'd like to give an "At Home." Most of our friends are accustomed to having an abundance of alcoholic drinks served at such parties. This creates a problem for us because we really can't afford any such amount of alcoholic beverages. And yet we so very much want to give a party. Do you have any suggestions that we'll be serving soft drinks so as not to disappoint a great number of our guests?

Answer: In your place, I should frankly invite them to afternoon tea at 4 o'clock. The word "tea" and the early hour certainly will hold no false hopes of long strong drinks. Those who find pleasure in your company will give you very special happiness if they stay late. Others who feel the need of more effective stimulant as afternoon closes, will have plenty of early evening time to join cocktail parties elsewhere.

The Auxiliary

Dear Mrs. Post: Is the women's branch of a man's club called a women's auxiliary or a ladies' auxiliary?

Answer: Ladies' auxiliary.

Are you planning to give an afternoon tea? Mrs. Post's leaflet E-27, describes in detail the invitation, the tea table arrangement, the tea tray and what to serve. To obtain a copy, send 5 cents in coin and a stamped self-addressed envelope to her, in care of the Kingston Daily Freeman, P. O. Box 99, Station G, New York 19, N. Y. Mrs. Post is sorry she cannot answer personal mail. (Released by The Bell Syndicate, Inc.)

Questions-Answers

Q—How far back does the coal industry in the United States date?

A—It dates back to about 1000 A. D. in Navajo county, Arizona, where the Hopi Indians used lignite to burn pottery. The first written reference to the discovery of coal in the United States is to be found in the accounts of Joliet's expedition in 1673 and 1674 to the Mississippi River in the Illinois country.

Q—From the standpoint of box office returns who is the leading motion picture actor?

A—According to a poll conducted among owners of motion picture theatres, Bing Crosby was the top money-making star for the fourth consecutive year.

Q—Is the jack rabbit a true rabbit?

A—The jack rabbit, whose erroneous name has been in use for more than half a century, is not a rabbit, but a hare.

Q—How can one remove hard water scale that forms inside a teakettle?

A—It can usually be removed by boiling in the kettle about a cup of vinegar with three cups of water, which dissolves the scale. Sometimes people will place an oyster or clam shell inside the teakettle, so that the scale tends to collect there rather than on the kettle.

Q—After which Louis was Louisiana named?

A—It was named by La Salle in 1682 after Louis XIV of France.

Years ago the average family might boast of one good bridge player, but today it is not unusual to find the whole family in a bridge game. One such family is Mr. and Mrs. Harry J. Roth of Brooklyn, N. Y., who are both good players, and their twin daughters, Claire Marie and Marie Claire.

Dad generally plays with one of the twins and mother plays with the other. One of these days I am going to coax them to have a parents versus twins game.

One of the twins was sitting South and played today's hand. I cannot tell you which one it was, because I can't tell them apart. She won the opening lead of the diamond king with the ace, and now I wondered if she would go over to the ace of clubs in dummy and take the jack of hearts finesse. It would be an easy mistake to make, but she did not make it.

She correctly reasoned that if she did find the queen of hearts on her right and East covered, she still would have to drop the ten. So she simply laid down the ace and king of hearts.

Then she went over to dummy's ace of spades and cashed the King, discarding the four of diamonds from her own hand. Her only hope now was to find the spade suit split, so she led the deuce of spades and trumped it. Now she entered dummy by playing the three of clubs to the ace and led the high spade, discarding the eight of diamonds.

West trumped with the ten of hearts and led another diamond, but it was too late. The losing diamonds had been discarded.

Low Rent Project

New York, Feb. 5 (AP)—State Housing Commissioner Herman T. Stuchman announced today that he has signed, on behalf of the State of New York, a loan and subsidy contract for $2,000,000 with the North Hempstead Housing Authority to finance the construction and operation of a permanent low rent housing project within the town of North Hempstead. The project, to be built on two sites, one in Manhasset Valley and the other in Port Washington, will accommodate 170 low income families at an estimated monthly rental of $8.65 a room, and will be eligible for cash subsidies up to $70.00 annually, enabling it to retain its low rent status.

Charge Discrimination

New York, Feb. 5 (AP)—The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People says the Federal Housing Administration "has continued to lend its full support to the perpetuation of 'Climax' in a letter to President Truman yesterday, the association urged that the F.H.A. 'underwriting manual' be revised to exclude considerations of race, religion or nationality in granting mortgage insurance to housing developments. The letter, signed by Walter White, the association executive secretary, was accompanied by a lengthy memorandum purporting to document charges that the F.H.A. was supporting discriminatory housing developments.

Masonic Fund Drive Underway

The three-fold Masonic Brotherhood Fund drive is underway in Kingston under the co-chairmanship of Charles L. Troll, chairman of Kingston Lodge, 10, and Abe Rosenthal, chairman of Rondout Lodge, 343.

Money raised in the annual drive is used for Masonic benevolences, support of the Utica home and for the foundation for the study and treatment of rheumatic fever.

Mayor Oscar V. Newkirk recently opened the campaign in Kingston when he said "I know of no more noble purpose than the establishment of the foundation for the study to determine the prevention, cause and cure of rheumatic fever."

As a result of last year's drive, grants of considerable size were given to the following universities and schools for research into the disease: Columbia University, school of physicians and surgeons; Cornell University, medical school and arthritic clinic; Irvington House for cardiac children, New York University, Bellevue Medical Center; Syracuse University and rheumatic fever foundation; University of Buffalo, school of medicine and University of Rochester school of medicine.

Members of the Masonic Brotherhood in Kingston will soon be contacted for contributions. Others also may help the campaign by contacting either of the local chairmen or writing to Masonic Temple, 31 Albany avenue.

Rosendale Road

Bank, Webb Kniffen of New Paltz and Claude Needles of Kingston.

Whole Town Hill
Also affected are the town and village of Rosendale which uses the road to reach the town and village dumping grounds between Elmwater and Hickorybush.

Many local residents who formerly used this road will now find it necessary to go out of their way to get to work.

Mayor Vaughn of Rosendale and Supervisor Snyder of the town of Rosendale could not be reached for comment but it is assumed injunction proceedings probably will be brought by users of the road to open it to traffic.

Two fatal accidents have recently occurred on the barricaded crossing which had very poor sight distance. In actions brought to recover damages growing out of these accidents the court dismissed the complaint against the Williams Lake interests on the grounds they could not be held as responsible parties, the court holding that while the crossing was not a town road it was a public road because of a period of many years. Substantial judgments were found against the railroad.
